

HLAA MEMBER'S MYSTERY FUN CLASS

WIN "BIG BUCKS"!!

The Hoosier Llama Alpaca Assoc. will be offering a free HLAA Mystery Fun Class at all Indiana Shows in 2011! (with the show superintendent's permission of course)

The planned classes will not be for the best halter animal or the best performance animal, but will be strictly a fun class for HLAA members and one of their llamas. One Mystery class is planned for adult HLAA members and one Mystery class for youth HLAA members at each show. Planned and sponsored by the HLAA. And you can bet on the fun part!

A different HLAA Mystery Class will be held at each show and the awards will also be different and also a mystery! Cash awards will be either $25.00 or $50.00 at each show throughout the season – one amount for the adult class and one amount for the youth class. The mystery will be whether the adult winner or the youth winner draws the $50.00 award!

Plan to attend all Indiana Llama Shows this year, join in the fun, and take advantage of your HLAA membership benefit for the opportunity to win the "Big Bucks"!
